

EBA accepts Ombudsman recommendations following former Executive Director's move to finance lobby group

News - 01/09/2020

European Ombudsman Emily O'Reilly commends the European Banking Authority (EBA) for agreeing to introduce the measures she recommended to deal with future revolving door situations. This follows her finding that the EBA should not have allowed its former Executive Director to become CEO of a financial lobby association.

Read [here the press release \[Link\]](#).