

Ombudsman criticises how Commission handled request for access to President's text messages

News - 28/01/2022

The Ombudsman has criticised how the Commission handled a request for public access to text messages between its President and the CEO of a pharmaceutical company.

She has now asked it to do a more extensive search for the relevant messages.

Read here the press release. [\[Link\]](#)