

How the European Commission responded to concerns that it collects insufficient information about Ireland's implementation of the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Case 97/2022/PB - Opened on 10/02/2022 - Institution concerned European Commission

The complainant, a civil society organisation, raised concerns about how the European Commission is monitoring the application of the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) in Ireland, in particular that the Commission does not gather sufficient information to effectively monitor the situation.

The Ombudsman opened an inquiry and asked the Commission to explain how it ensures it has sufficient information to monitor the application of the GDPR.
