The 57 projects nominated for the Ombudsman's Award for Good Administration are now online . The projects come from a range of EU institutions and showcase the breadth of activities carried out by the EU administration.

At an award ceremony on 28 June , the Ombudsman will name the overall winning project as well as winners in specific categories:

- citizen-oriented delivery
- communication
- diversity and inclusion
- innovation
- open administration

There will also be an additional award for the most popular project , which will be decided by an online vote . Be sure to vote for your favourite project by 14 June 2023 and encourage others to take part too!

The award ceremony will be livestreamed from 10:00 to 12:00 on Wednesday, 28 June.
