

Handling of an infringement complaint concerning an alleged discrimination against men in voluntary additional pension schemes

Case opened

Case 790/2013/EIS - Opened on 24/05/2013 - Decision on 08/10/2014 - Institution concerned European Commission (No further inquiries justified) |

Allegation(s)

The Commission failed to provide adequate reasons for closing infringement complaint 4404/2004.

Claim(s)

In light of the arguments put forward by the complainants in their further letters, the Commission should either re-open infringement complaint 4404/2004, or register the complainants' further letters as a new complaint in accordance with the Commission's Communication on Infringements of EU Law (COM(2012)154 final).
