

Failure to respect rights of defence in a competition law procedure

Case 1500/2014/FOR - Opened on 03/09/2014 - Decision on 13/11/2014 - Institution concerned European Commission (Critical remark) |

Allegation(s)

The European Commission infringed the complainant's rights of defence by using a "fast track" procedure with the intention of adopting a decision imposing a fine on the complainant.

Claim(s)

The Commission should respect the complainant's rights of defence by issuing a new Statement of Objections before adopting a decision on the matter under investigation.
