

Alleged failure properly to handle an infringement complaint - Refusal of access to documents

Case 230/2012/ER - Opened on 27/02/2012 - Decision on 14/02/2014 - Institution concerned European Commission (No maladministration found) |

Allegation(s)

- 1) The Commission failed properly to handle the complainant's infringement complaint.
- 2) The Commission unlawfully refused the complainant access to the requested documents.

Claim(s)

- 1) The Commission should address a reasoned opinion to France concerning the unlawful practice.
- 2) The Commission should adopt a temporary ban on trade in French wine spirits until France complies with its obligations under EU law.
- 3) The Commission should grant the complainant access to the requested documents.