Strategic inquiry OI/8/2015/JAS concerning the transparency of Trilogues

Dear Mr President,

Thank you for your letter of 16 December 2016 informing me about the European Commission's actions in response to my proposals following strategic inquiry OI/8/2015/JAS on the transparency of Trilogues [1] .

I welcome the Commission's engagement on this important matter. However, I think you will agree that there has never been a more critical time for the European democratic process to be seen by EU citizens as open and accountable.

While I welcome the fact that the Commission has decided to initiate, both internally and with the other institutions, discussions on the implementation of a number of my proposals, it is imperative that a strong focus be maintained on this matter and particularly at a time when the Union is likely to be under an exceptionally high level of scrutiny.

I would therefore be grateful if the Commission could inform me by 30 November 2017 of the progress made in the discussions related to my strategic inquiry.

As regards the case pending before the General Court, De Capitani v Parliament (T-540/15), I would also be grateful if, once the Court rules on that case, you would inform me of the conclusions the Commission draws from that ruling in relation to my proposals. As this case may take some time to conclude, it is important nonetheless that transparency issues that are not contingent on it be dealt with within a reasonable timeframe.

I am taking a particular interest in the ongoing work on the development of the joint legislative database provided for in the new Interinstitutional Agreement on Better

Law-making [2] and intend to follow this matter closely in the coming months.

Yours sincerely,

Emily O'Reilly

European Ombudsman
