RE: Guiding principles for external communication by members of the ECB Executive Board.

Dear Ms O'Reilly,

Further to my letter of 10 June 2015, I should like to inform you that the members of the Executive Board have agreed on guiding principles for their external communication aimed at further improving the transparency of the ECB's communication channels.

These guiding principles, which I enclose for your advance information, will be released on the ECB's website at 4 p.m. today.

Finally, I should like to assure you of the ECB's Executive Board commitment to the principles of transparency and good governance.

Yours sincerely,
